The secret of teaching yourself music

It's just organized common sense, says this 79-year-old home study school. Their step-by-step word and picture instructions take the mystery out of learning to play the piano, the guitar, or the spinet organ.

It may seem odd at first – the idea of teaching yourself music. You might think you need a private teacher at $4 to $10 an hour to stand beside you and explain everything you should do–and tell you when you've made a mistake.

But surprising as it seems, you need no such thing. Thousands of people just like you have taught themselves to play with the U.S. School of Music courses. By mail. And you can too.

The secret lies in the step-by-step way our lessons teach you. Starting from scratch, they show you with simple words and pictures exactly what to do. You learn to play correctly–by note, from sheet music. Without gimmicks.

But how do you know you're doing it right? Easy. A lot of the tunes you'll practice first are simple songs you've heard before. And since you already know how they're supposed to sound, you can tell right away when you've "got them right."

By the time you go on to more advanced pieces, you'll be able to tell if your notes and timing are right, even without ever having heard the songs before. Sooner than you might think possible, you'll be able to play different kinds of music: ballads, old favorites, show tunes, or hymns.

Convenient and Economical

You learn in your spare time, in the privacy and convenience of your own home. There's no one standing over you to make you nervous. And because you teach yourself, you set your own pace.

And you'll be delighted to discover how economical it is. The cost comes to less than you'd have to pay a private teacher.

There Are So Many Rewards

How effective are the lessons? Ask Jeffrey Livingston of York, Pa. "I thought the organ course was excellent," he writes. "I knew almost nothing about playing an instrument before I enrolled. Now I can play not only the organ, but the piano too. My new music ability has enabled me to play at churches and small conventions. I am even considering making music my career."

And, Cecelia Feeney of Vineland, N.J. reports: "It's like a dream come true. Knowing how to play the piano and read music has given me new self-confidence."

Mail Coupon Today

If you'd like to learn more about this convenient, pleasant way to teach yourself music, send for our free booklet. With it, we'll include a free "Note-Finder" for guitar or piano.

There's no obligation. Just mail the coupon today to U.S. SCHOOL OF MUSIC. A Home Study School Since 1898.

YOU ASKED US

Here's the monthly feature which YOU get to write! It's your chance to have a top wrestler answer YOUR question! Only the best questions will be answered—so put on your thinking caps and come up with some good ones! Address your questions—and who you would like to have answer them—to: YOU ASKED US, c/o THE WRESTLER, PO Box 38, Rockville Centre, N.Y. 11571. Questions will be answered only in this column and at our discretion!

Mil Mascaras' masks—the more colorful and wild the design, the more the popular grappler from Mexico likes them!

Fans of Andre the Giant (above) can rest easy. The huge grappler is not contemplating quitting wrestling and going into a full time movie career. Andre loves his fans too much to give up the sport.

Q: Will Bruno Sammartino wrestle Harley Race for the NWA title?—Henry King, Huntsville, Alabama

A: Bruno has expressed some desire to square off against the NWA champion. Several promoters are now busy trying to sign the match. So far, promoters in St. Louis, Missouri, have put in the highest bid for the proposed battle.

Q: Which one of Mil Mascaras' masks does he like best?—Jeffrey Grizzle, Gainesville, Georgia

A: "That is very difficult to answer since I have over one thousand masks," says Mascaras, "but let me answer you this way: The more colorful the mask, the more I like it. If it has a wild design, I like it even more."

Q: Is there any truth to the rumor that Andre the Giant will retire and pursue a full-time movie career?—Gerry McCabe, Lowell, Massachusetts

A: Andre made a firm decision several months ago. He will stay in wrestling because he loves his fans. He would like to rid the sport of notorious rulebreakers.

Q: How does Ken Patera feel now that he has ended the career of Billy White Wolf?—Tony Hectorima, Brooklyn, New York

A: "I think it is the funniest thing I ever did!" Laughed Patera. "Did you see the look on the dumb Indian's face when I broke his neck? It was something to see! I couldn't help laughing. Even my manager, Captain Lou Albano, thinks it's the funniest thing that ever happened!"

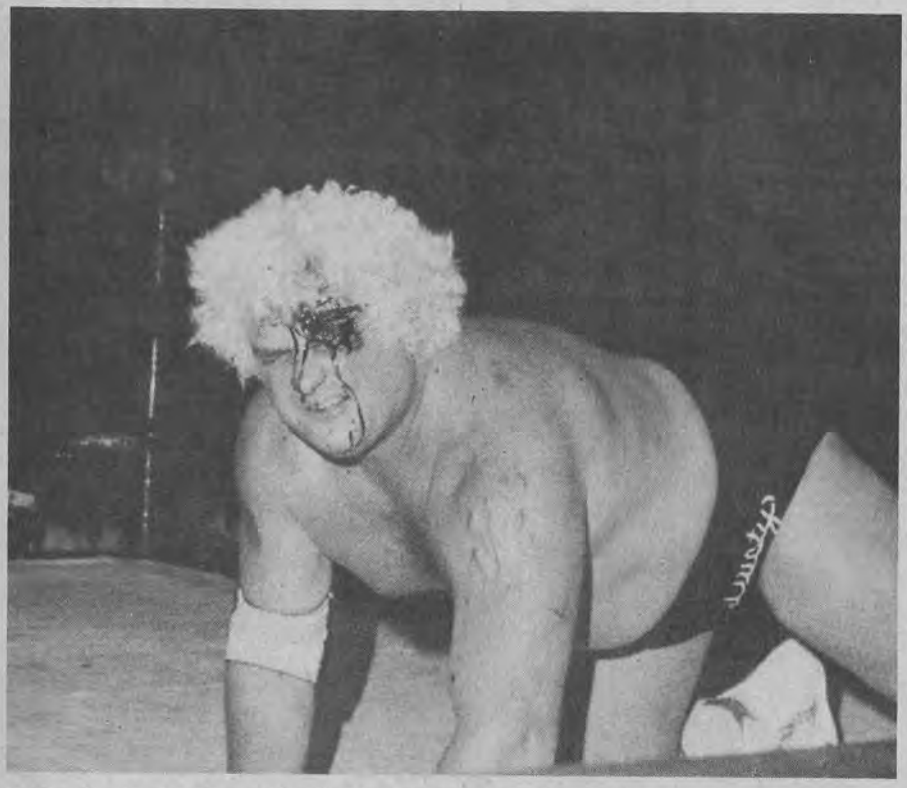
CORRESPONDENTS Reports

The Mid-Atlantic Television title, once owned by Ric Flair (above), is still in the hands of young Rick Steamboat—the man who upset Flair for the honors.



Dusty Rhodes has been bloodied by Ernie Ladd, a former tag team partner with whom Dusty is currently at war. Their battles are the bloodiest Florida fans have witnessed in years.

If you would like your area of the country represented in these reports, while also being officially credited with your own by-line, send us reports of the matches you attend. You will have the thrill of seeing your name in an internationally known magazine while at the same time helping to improve the quality of wrestling in your area. So why not give it a try? FLORIDA MAT WARS
By Marguerite Salem

IT WAS WAR between Dusty Rhodes and Ernie Ladd in their no-disqualification match at the West Palm Beach auditorium.

Action started before the bell as Dusty leapt on Ladd, weakening the huge wrestler. Action spilled out of the ring, then back within the ropes. Dusty remained in control the whole time. But Rhodes had a short argument with the referee, giving Ernie time to load his thumb. Ladd grabbed Dusty and jabbed Rhodes in the throat. The action again spilled over the ropes, this time resulting in Rhodes becoming horribly bloodied. Ladd dragged Dusty back into the ring, hoping to finish the match. However, Dusty rallied and turned the match around. Overwhelmed, Ladd couldn't protect himself from a flying elbowsmash.

In other action, Ivan Koloff upset Jack Brisco and Rocky Johnson . . . Jerry Brisco defeated Tank Patton . . . Steve Keirn caught Buddy Roberts in a sleeper hold.

VIRGINIA NEWS
By Marie Cross

Rick Steamboat once again defended his TV title against Ric Flair at the Scope Arena.

The match was fairly even during the opening minutes, but then came the explosion. A huge gash opened across Flair's head, bringing the crowd to its feet. But Ric responded by injuring Steamboat's neck. It looked like Flair might take the title, but Rick proved himself to be a great competitor. The time limit expired and Steamboat remained TV champion.

THE WONDER FOOD

Western science has finally begun to recognize the amazing powers of Bee Pollen and Ginseng. Now, they are combined in a fabulous new food supplement called "POLLE-SENG". We urge you to try it for 60 days—entirely at our risk. See how it works. See how much better you may feel. Then you will understand why we call it: POLLE-SENG—The Wonder Food.

Is Polle-Seng—the new combination of bee pollen and ginseng—the perfect, power-packed, health food supplement?

Read these facts and decide for yourself.

FACTS: In Russia, Cosmonauts as well as top athletes are given Ginseng extract.

FACTS: At least 70% of Swiss physicians prescribe Ginseng for the well-being of their patients.

FACT: Ginseng is used in the treatment of secondary impotence at many hospitals in the West Indies.

FACT: A distinguished Russian doctor wrote: "...during 50 centuries, numerous medicines have sunk into oblivion. Yet Ginseng exists...possessing generally tonic and healing effects..."

FACT: Ginseng is called "The Root of Heaven"—and has been used in China for over 4,000 years. It is widely given in Europe and the Far East to relieve stress, to improve energy—and a general sense of well-being.

But Ginseng is only half of the remarkable formulation of POLLE-SENG. The other ingredient—Bee Pollen—is perhaps the most perfect food in nature. It contains all known amino acids...PLUS 27 minerals and many enzymes—all in perfect balance.

How can Bee Pollen benefit you? Read these facts—and decide for yourself...

FACT: A top Olympic runner (the only man to win both the grueling five and ten thousand meter races in two consecutive Olympics) has used Bee Pollen for nearly ten years.

FACT: A world-famous American sprinter says Bee Pollen has improved his recovery time by 75%.

FACT: A top boxing heavyweight takes a special Bee Pollen mixture.

FACT: One of England's greatest shot-putters says he is no longer sore for three days after competing since taking Bee Pollen. And 90% of his Olympic teammates have joined him in taking Bee Pollen.

FACT: A leading University began providing its runners with Bee Pollen—and promptly set a new indoor mile record.

Now, POLLE-SENG, the Wonder Food, brings together the remarkable powers of both Ginseng and Bee Pollen—compounded and concentrated into one power-packed tablet.

POLLE-SENG combines 250 milligrams of oriental Ginseng plus 250 milligrams of naturally harvested imported Bee Pollen.

POLLE-SENG contains no added sugar or starch, and is glazed with an easy-to-swallow vegetable coating.

Bee Pollen and Ginseng: a dynamic duo

Many people have been using Bee Pollen and Ginseng. Read what they say about this powerful pair:

"I started using ginseng over three years ago. While in Europe I had heard about the benefits of Bee Pollen. Since then, I've been using both. I'm over 60, but I feel years younger. I wake up refreshed in the morning, eager to start the new day. I'm constantly full of energy and pep."—RG, New York, NY

Is this the key to new vitality?

This single tablet may open the door to new vitality, a new sense of well-being. It may help you ward off the common symptoms of aging and stress of this modern world—may even add new spark and intensity to your sexual vitality.

Here is a formulation of natural, organic health foods that may be so powerful, so charged with energy, it may change your life.

Doesn't it make sense to try POLLE-SENG. There is so much to be gained.

No-risk offer

What can POLLE-SENG do for you? Only you can tell. That's why we offer it on a no-risk, free trial basis.

Order your supply of POLLE-SENG today. Use it as directed. Experience the change that may happen in you own life. If you are not totally delighted with the results, we will refund your purchase price without question—promptly and cheerfully.

Could any offer be more fair?

WHAT'S HAPPENING!

By BILL APTER

DISGUSTED THAT RULE-BREAKERS own the three major championships, Mil Mascaras has issued a formal challenge to all three title holders. Mascaras, who usually opts not to pursue titles since they tie him down to one area of the country, has now had a change of heart.

"It sickens me that the three most valuable honors in professional wrestling are owned by Harley Race, Superstar Graham and Nick Bockwinkle," says Mascaras. "I want to wrestle each of these champions in a period of one week. I will beat all of them and become the one world champion. I promise to restore honor to all three major titles."

The U.S. title changed hands twice in three weeks! First Bobo Brazil whipped Blackjack Mulligan to take the belt. Then Bobo's reign was cut short by Ric Flair, who now claims he will hold it "longer than any other champion in history."

According to doctors, Indian mat star Billy White Wolf will never wrestle again! White Wolf's neck was broken by Ken Patera's swinging neckbreaker a while back. After several weeks of recuperation, Billy thought he could get back into action. But he was injured again during a training session. The injury was to his neck which doctors say never really healed properly. "He went into training much too soon, against our orders," said one physician. "The injury is much worse than before. His career is over."

Don Muraco is back to the mat wars after a serious injury at the hands of Ivan Koloff... Oklahoma officials now chain "General" Scandor Akbar's wrists to the ringpost so he will not help The Masked Medics [Akbar manages them] when they are in trouble... Pedro Morales has entered the Florida mat scene . . . Bruno Sammartinc is contemplating a tour of the Orient . . . Baron Von Raschke is headed to the Mid-Atlantic area.

At the Philadelphia Spectrum, George Steele was disqualified in his match against Lenny Hurst. However, things did not end there. As Steele was being escorted back to the dressing room, he terrorized the arena's cleaning men! He swiped their brooms, and broke the brooms in half! Then he ripped open a bag of sawdust and threw it all over them! Finally security guards were able to corner Steele and forcibly drag him back to his dressing room!

BACKLUND'S TIME

After reading, "Bob Backlund: Rocketing to the Title" (September 1977), I am convinced he is going to be the greatest superstar in the sport in the very near future. This handsome, talented young man has everything going for him. All he needs now is the championship belt around his waist, and that should happen soon.

Wrestling a man like Terry Funk is no easy task, even for an experienced veteran. Funk has savaged many men. That Backlund was not hurt is an accomplishment. That Bob was able to wrestle Terry to a draw is fantastic. It just shows how amazing this young man can be!

All hail the next superstar, Bob Backlund!

PAT POWER

I felt I had to write you after reading your article, "Pat Patterson's Shocking Change" (September 1977). I am a great fan of Pat Patterson, and I think it is a good thing that he is going off to explore new areas.

He should be encouraged to try to win the Florida state title, then go after Harley Race's NWA belt. It is about time someone realized the greatness of Pat Patterson. Harley, watch out!

LIVING IN THE PAST

I was very intrigued with "This Was My Greatest Match" by Mil Mascaras in your September 1977 issue. I don't know if I necessarily agree with Mil's assessment of which was his greatest battle (I think there have been better ones). But I do wonder why Mascaras has chosen to dwell on this match.

Personally, I think Mil should have forgotten about this particular bout. He didn't win against Dory Funk Jr. The result was a draw. And though it was a strictly scientific battle, I still do not believe it was the best Mascaras ever had. Therefore, why did he choose this one? Why against Dory Funk Jr.? It boggles the mind.

DANNY REINGOLD

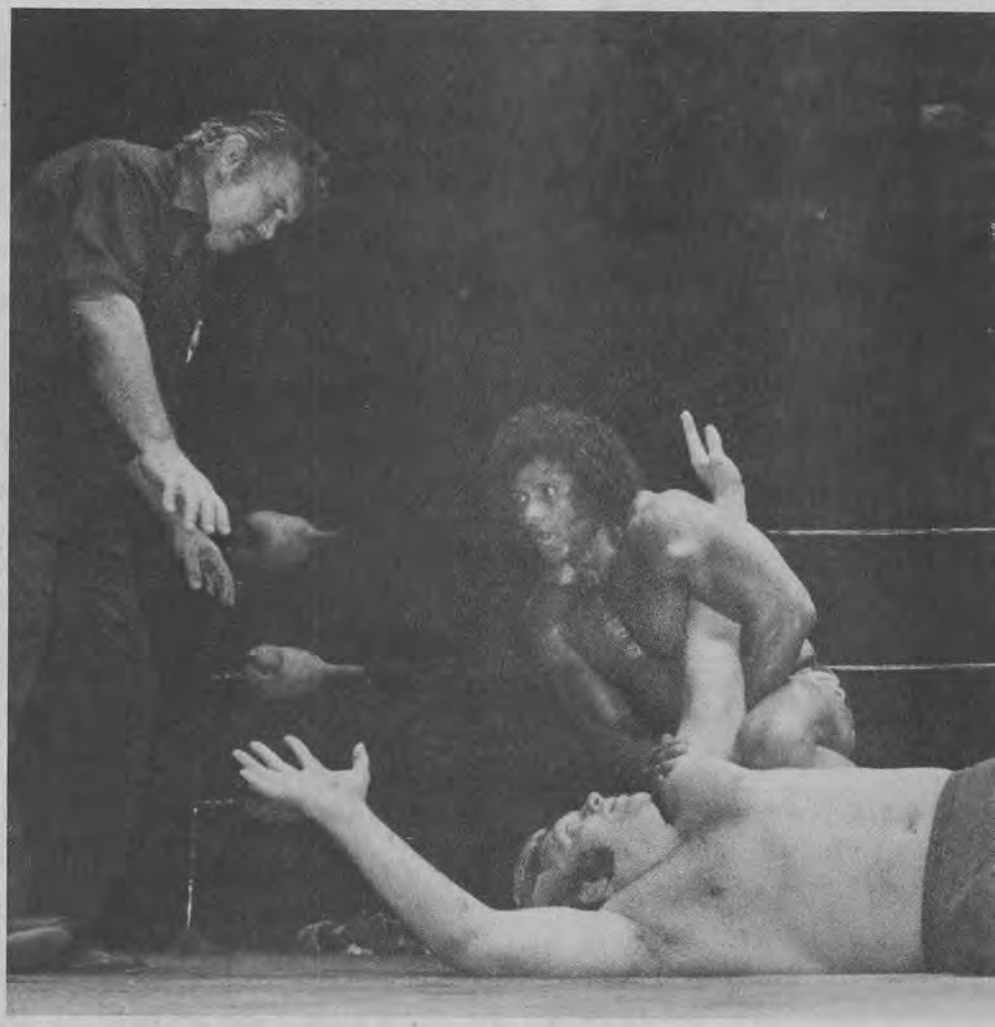
Two young men representing the full spectrum of wrestling meet in combat. All the experts say this match will be repeated five years from now. At that time the NWA title will be given to the winner. No one wants to think of what will happen to the loser



THE BATTLE FOR THE NW
. . .FIVE YEARS FRO

TO THE TWO young men, it was just another match, albeit a rather brutal one. But to several wrestling experts who were in attendance on that night, it was much more than just another match. It was a prelude to what should happen five years from now!

Jimmy Snuka and John Studd are two of the best of the new breed of young wrestlers, though their styles differ greatly. Snuka seems to revel in scientific wrestling. He is happiest devising complex maneuvers and intricate strategies. He has proven himself to be a brilliant tactician. He is amazing to watch. His raw talent seems unbounded. He is still learning, but so far, he has done rather well.

John Studd, on the other hand, is a vicious, cruel brawler. His aim is to win, no matter what the cost. Complex strategies don't interest him. He gets by on his brute strength and the brutal maneuvers he has perfected. Yet there is talent in the young man. Close observation reveals there is more to John Studd than one might think. He has the potential for greatness, in an odd sort of way. He is talented, though unchecked. He requires development.

Most experts agree that Studd and Snuka have brilliant careers ahead of them. They both have a lot to learn. Yet there is no way of denying their talent. In five years, they will definitely be among the greatest superstars in the sport. And the match in which they meet five years from now could very well be for the NWA title. They will both be that good!

Many people had looked forward to this particular match for these reasons. They wanted to see the two young men battle each other. They wanted to see just what the battle for the title would be like in five years. However, there were some circumstances surrounding this match which prevented everyone from having a complete picture of what the future held.

Gary Hart is to blame for that.

The match between Jimmy Snuka and John Studd started off to be quite interesting. Both men were cautious in the opening moments, trying to find each other's weaknesses. Studd was the first to make a move, trying to knock Snuka down to the canvas. Jimmy quickly gathered his wits and began his own attack.

For 15 minutes, the two young men battled, both of them using mostly scientific tactics. Neither one was able to gain a clear advantage over the other. Yet every minute was filled with excitement. Studd was able to show he could be a good tactician if the need arose. Snuka was just as good if not better. The two men seemed evenly matched.

One man in the crowd was not satisfied with the way things were going—Gary Hart. He was Studd's manager, and he was getting frustrated at the way things were going. He believed John should be using more brutal tactics, rather

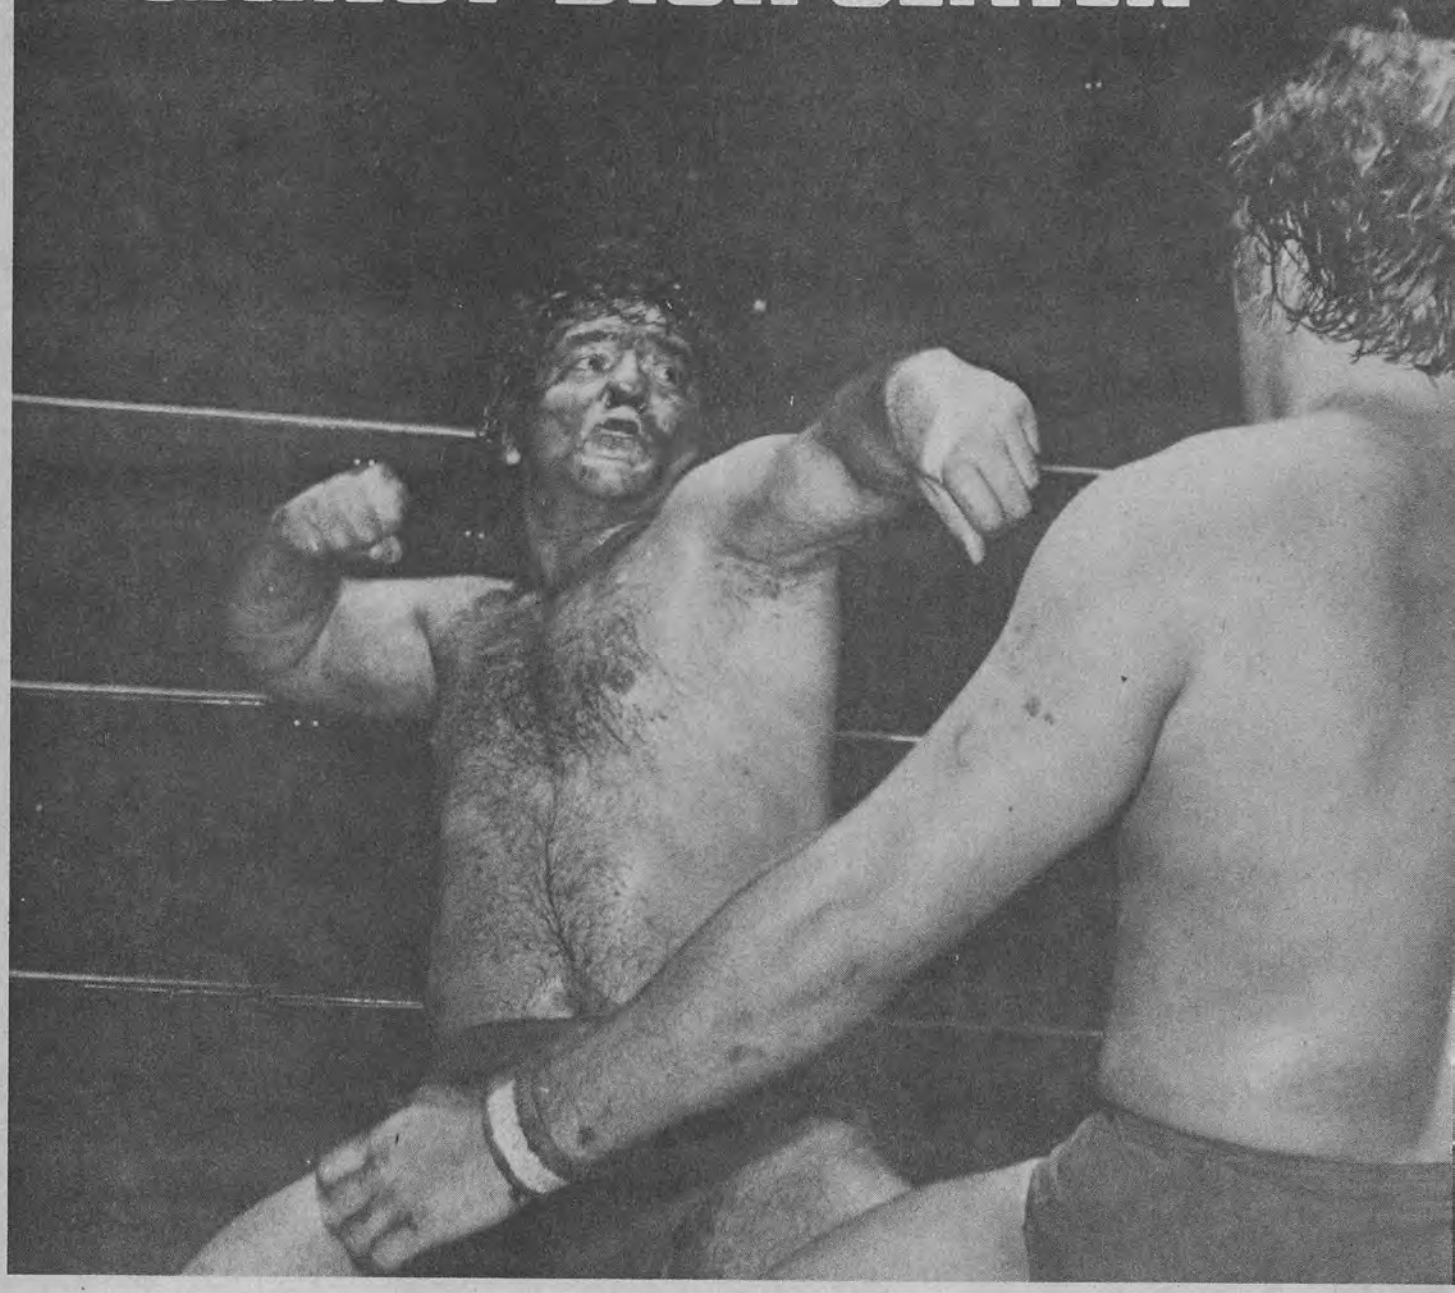
PAUL JONES' TERRIFYING C
AGAINST DICK SLATER



WHEREVER HE GOES, he makes people wonder. Will he be a rulebreaker tonight? Will he stay strictly as a scientific wrestler? Will he be ruthless and cunning? Will he rely on his great strength to see him through the match? No one ever knows what he will do next. That is part of what makes Dick Slater a feared man. Being unpredictable, he inspires terror.

No one enjoys this fright more than Slater. He thrives on it. He seems to grow more powerful with every passing day. And with every passing day, another wrestler falls victim to Dick's vicious maulings. The batterings are becoming more frequent, more brutal, but still unexpected. None of this bothers Slater. He rather enjoys what he's doing. He likes to terrify people everywhere he goes.

But this terror is not unrelieved. There is someone who has dedicated his very being to seeing the end of Slater's reign of horror. That someone is Paul Jones.

This fact, in and of itself, would not be considered unusual. Jones has always been known for striving for what is right. If that means going after a man like Slater, then

The most important thing in Paul Jones' life is an event which has yet to occur—the destruction of Dick Slater. Driven by this mission, Jones is rushing headlong to a final cataclysmic confrontation which both men can't possibly survive it is natural for Paul to do it. However, it is the way Paul is going about this matter that has people worried. He seems to be almost obsessed with the idea of bringing Dick Slater down. This is unusual for Jones.

Paul Jones is usually a man who likes to keep his cool under pressure. It is the way he operates best. He can remain calm when all those around him are frantic. He is a good man to have around in emergencies. Usually. He is oddly changed by his quest to conquer Slater.

Paul's whole being is now dedicated to ending Slater's reign of terror. In many ways, it is terrifying. Slater must be a very formidable opponent to cause such a radical change in Jones. No other man has ever induced such a transformation. This could be dangerous for both men.

First of all, there really was no reason for this whole crusade to start. Dick Slater has been confining himself to the Georgia area. He seems to like it there. Paul Jones is known mostly for his battles in the Mid-Atlantic areas. Yet when the hue and cry arose for someone to stop Slater, Jones abandoned the Mid-Altantic and went straight to Georgia. For some unknown reason, Paul felt compelled to stop Dick Slater.

"I have difficulty understanding this myself," he says. "But when I heard about what Slater was doing in Georgia, I knew I had to do something to stop him. I didn't rush down. I waited. I was reluctant to go at first. But something kept gnawing at me. I began to feel it was my duty to go to Georgia. And so I went.

"The reports I had heard were not exaggerated. In fact, Slater was more vicious than I ever expected. Yet there were also times when he wrestled strictly by the rules. I didn't understand it. I certainly did not understand him. It seems the more confused I became, the more I wanted to do something about this menace to the sport. I think I even began to scare myself, at least at first. Now I'm quite sure I know what I'm doing. And what I'm doing is for the good of the entire sport. At least I think so."

This obsession of Paul's is very difficult for him. He is now hounding Slater, going wherever he can, trying to arrange matches against the man, sometimes succeeding, sometimes not. And those few matches the two men have had have been brutal encounters. Both men have won and lost in these matches.

"I don't understand this at all," says Slater. "I don't know why Paul Jones thought he had to come to Georgia to wrestle me. I certainly didn't invite him. And I certainly don't want to wrestle him as often as he wants to wrestle me. That man is crazy. He's obsessed. I just don't understand it. It's not like he can defeat me. He can't. So why does he make all those noises like he can? I just don't understand him at all.

"What have I ever done to make him so upset?"

The answer to that question is rather obvious to Paul. He has seen many of his close friends in Georgia injured by Dick Slater. He does not like Slater or the way he wrestles.

"Dick Slater is a menace to the sport," Jones maintains. "And I will go to almost any length to see him stopped. I don't care how much time it takes. I don't care if I have to wrestle him in every arena in Georgia. I will teach him a lesson. I will end his reign of terror. I think it would be better for all concerned."

"I wish he'd go back to where he came from," responds Slater. "I got along quite nicely without Paul Jones before. I'm doing quite well now. And I'll be quite all right with him gone again. I just wish I knew why I was the object of his silly crusade. I would feel a lot better if I knew that. Why me?"

A try for a pin by Slater is thwarted by Jones (above) as he chops Dick's throat. After the match, Jones is a picture of agony (below).

As is true in all crusades, this one will come to an end very soon. There is no way Paul can keep up with this quest. Either he will retreat from his position, or he will achieve his goal. No one is quite sure which it will be.

In the meantime, Paul continues trying to conquer Slater. Each of their battles gets more vicious. Each time they meet, more blood is shed. Each match they wrestle becomes more terrifying to objective observers. The implications of this series of contests are staggering.

The terrifying crusade upon which Paul Jones has embarked will be destructive, not only to Slater, but to Jones himself. Let us hope it is over soon. □

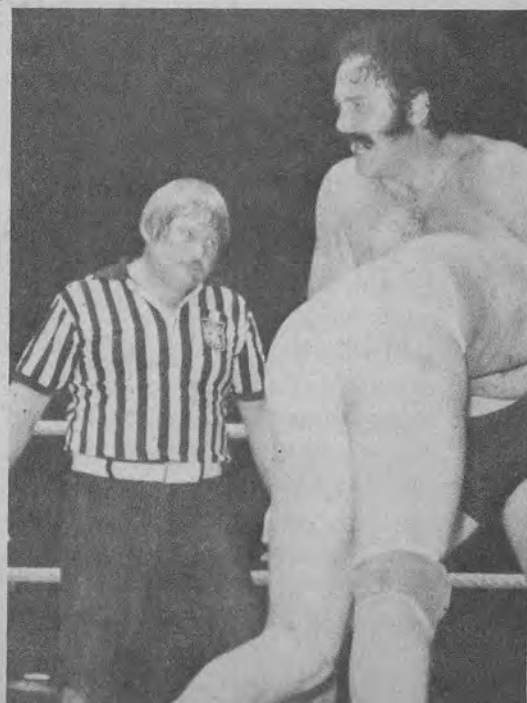
GAGNE AND WIN THE AWA T

THE POLICEMAN KNOCKED on the door. The loud noises of the party inside made the banging as loud as a pebble dropping into a rapids. This time the policeman used a billy club to pound on the door.

Inside, someone asked Greg Gagne, "Did you hear a knock on the door?"

"Maybe it's your mind telling you to get some fresh air," Greg suggested, "and your mind is righ. I'll open the door. This gathering could use a good airing out."

When Greg opened the door, he came face to face with a very angry cop. "Come in," Greg invited, "and find your friend. Don't be bashful, he was perfectly right to invite people to the celebration. I'm Greg Gagne, host and new AWA tag team champion. Who are you looking for?"



When wrestling seems to be dominated by rulebreakers, two scientific grapplers shine like a beacon for all those who love the sport. Everyone who cares about wrestling is cheering the new AWA tag team champions, Jim Brunzell and Greg Gagne!

BRUNZELL AG TEAM TITLE

"You're Greg Gagne!" the cop enthused. "You and Jim Brunzell won the title tonight? Congratulations." The cop extended his hand, forgetting in the excitement that the billy club was still in it. Greg deftly dodged as the club barely missed his belly. The policeman apologized, Greg laughed, and then took the unarmed hand in congratulations.

"I hate to do this," the policeman said once the confusion was over, "but I'm afraid you'll have to keep the noise down. The neighbors are beginning to complain. Actually, they're way past beginning. Some are very, very angry."

"Maybe we should invite them all to the party." This was proposed by the other half of the tag team championship, Jim Brunzell. "Neighbors! Attention, neighbors! The party celebrating the tag team championship of Greg Gagne and Jim Brunzell is now open to one and all. Take off your pajamas and put on something comfortable." When the exodus from neighboring houses didn't occur, Brunzell turned to the crowd inside and announced, "Due to the unfriendly attitude of the people around us, every one of whom kicks dogs and beats up old ladies, we have to keep it down in here. It seems some of them have the lack of imagination to have jobs they must go to in the morning. Anyone who continues to indulge in raucous behavior after this announcement will be visited by a plague of certified public accountants."

The party quieted down, the policeman repeated his congratulations, and all was right with the world. Jim Brunzell and Greg Gagne were the new AWA tag team champions. The hated team of Bobby Duncum and Blackjack Lanza had been dethroned.

It had been a splendid match. From the beginning, one could sense a title would fall this night. Brunzell and Gagne overwhelmed Duncum and Lanza from the opening bell. After a few minutes, fans realized even if Brunzell and Gagne lost this match, it would still be the best bout of their lives. Many fans were on their feet cheering.

Duncum and Lanza grew desperate. They used every trick in the repertoire of illegal maneuvers, but to no avail. Panic was evident in their eyes. Neither man wanted to get into combat with the two young whirlwinds. Duncum and Lanza grew frustrated and enraged, but were unable to turn the match around.

The end came when Lanza was battling Gagne. Blackjack had enough of this war and turned to his corner to tag out. Gagne saw his chance and leaped on Lanza's back, snaring Blackjack in a sleeper hold. Before Lanza could reach Duncum, Blackjack began to grow weak. Stumbling, he couldn't get near enough to Duncum to tag. Bobby has no scruples about sneaking in to save a match, but he had no chance this time. The referee could easily keep Duncum and the action in plain sight. Bobby was in the strange position of not being able to cheat!

As Duncum's fears grew, Lanza collapsed on the canvas, his legs too weak to hold him. The sleeper was taking its effect. As Greg's strong arms wrapped around Lanza's head, the crowd rose to its feet as one. When Lanza fell limp on the canvas, the referee waved his arms, signaling the match was over. Brunzell bounded into the ring, leaping high into the air. He and Greg were the two happiest people on earth.

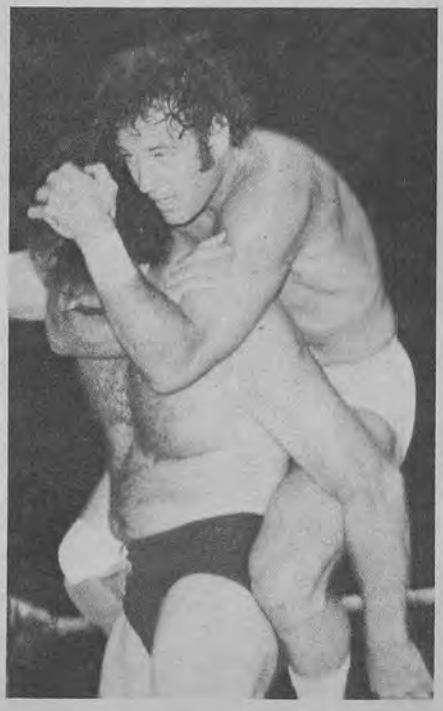
Then came the moment when the two were officially given the tag team belts. There was awe in both young men's faces as they tenderly took their prizes. Then, as if trying on some magical garments, they fastened the belts around their waists. It might have been due to the excitement, but each man immediately looked stronger and taller.

And then came the party. All their friends and friends of friends were there to celebrate the glorious occasion. Gagne and Brunzell were walking around on clouds, seeming to glide along happily. When the last of their guests had left, Greg and Jim slumped exhausted into chairs.

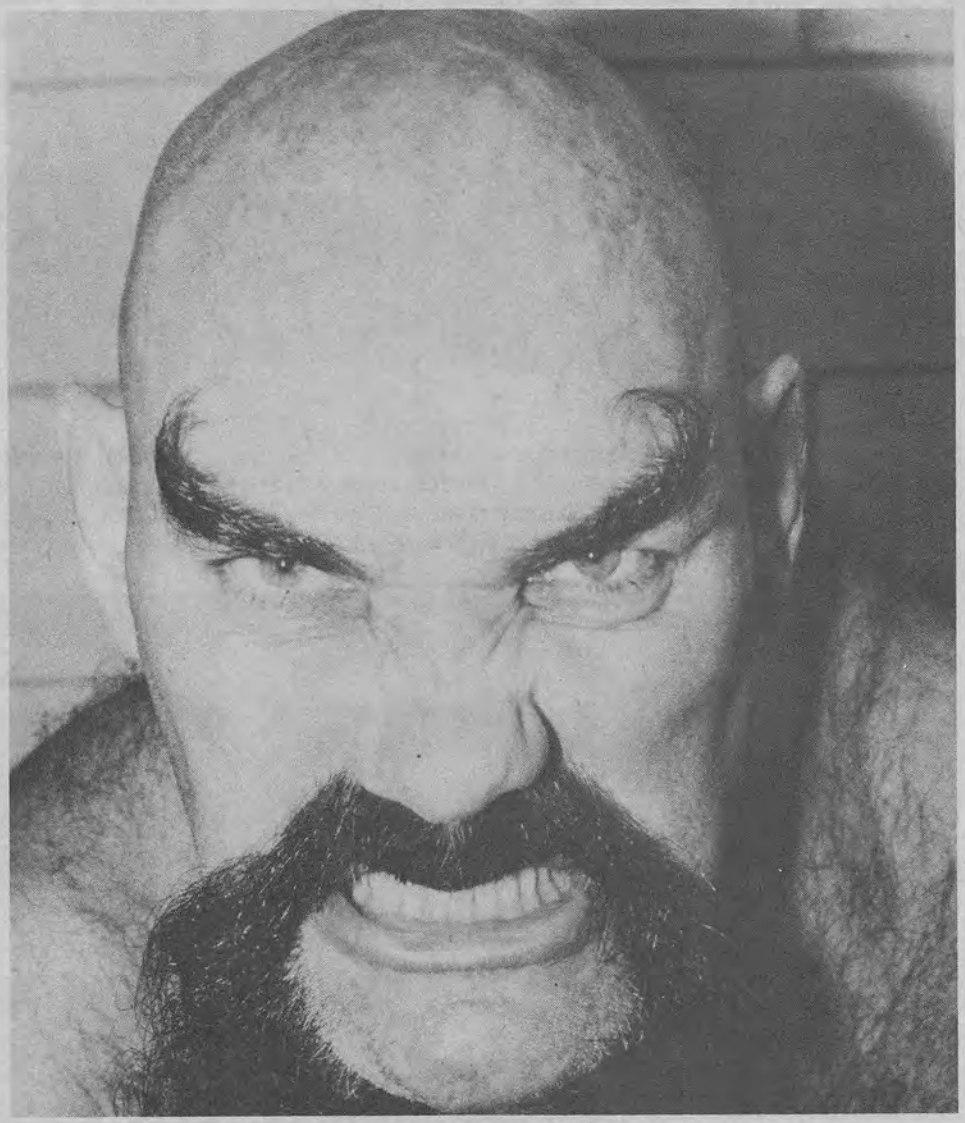
"Congratulations, champ," Brunzell declared.

"Congratulations to you, champ," Gagne responded.

As the dawn came up, the two men were laughing uproariously. No sun has ever shone on a pair of happier men. □



"I'LL DESTROY THE GRAHAMS ONE BY ONE!"



THE EYES FLASH electric hatred. Those who've seen this look before know it's time to leave. People who stay around wind up in wheelchairs. Ox Baker is on the warpath.

It isn't the first time. Brave men don't like to talk about what happened during the other times. Some memories are too painful for even the courageous. Remembering brings back images of friends who don't recognize loved ones all the time, who stumble face forward when trying to negotiate the length of a small room. Baker is responsible. If his savagery had been done anywhere but in a wrestling arena, the man would be put away in a jail cell today. But professional wrestlers don't press charges. So Baker is as Ox Baker is out for blood, blood of the Grahams. What's behind the strangest feud of Baker's career, one of the most bloodthirsty quests in wrestling history? When it comes to Baker, the reasons aren't as important as the brutal results!

free as a decent human being. Never talk about justice in front of widows.

Baker usually goes after one man, cripples him, and then moves on to someone else. One feud at a time, that's Baker's motto. At least it used to be. Now he's going after an entire clan. It's Ox Baker vs. the Grahams, one at a time.

Dynasty busting isn't Baker's usual line of work. Basically a bully, he prefers to have all the odds on his side. To challenge a group of people could almost be considered brave, or else foolhardy. Baker doesn't usually go after people who might be able to batter him.

The man is taking risks because of ambition. Baker suddenly decided he wants top money and top matches. No longer satisfied with being a marauder, he wants the championship. He's like some bandit who decides he wants to become a dictator.

How best to force a title shot? Destroy the competition. Start with the youngest and work your way up. That's the best way to savage a family. And if the family is the competition, issue the challenge.

"I want Mike Graham first!" Baker's piercing voice cut through the television studio. "Once I finish him off, then I'll go on to his father, Eddie. From there, it's the end of WWWF champ Superstar Billy Graham. Maybe they can get into the home on a family plan. One by one, I'll drive that family out of wrestling. If all of them have to be crippled, then that's the way it has to be.

"I'm tired of being considered everything but a contender. I don't care if all the champions are afraid of me. They've been dodging me for too long. Well, I'm going to make it impossible for them to keep running. After I destroy the Graham's, I'll be the most famous man in wrestling. The champions will have to meet me then. That would make me only one match away from the title. And when that bout is over, Ox Baker rules wrestling."

All bullies want to be dictators, ruling the lives of their helpless subjects. Baker is a bully who wants it all. That takes risks, something bullies never want. As might be expected, Ox is nervous. He won't admit it, but there are some things a man can't hide. Don't set off a firecracker behind him. The surprise noise could drive him crazy. His self-control is working overtime.

Baker is being called out on his threat. Mike Graham quickly took a match against him. "I'll end this right at the beginning," Mike promised. Father Eddie and Uncle Billy provided advice and insight. This would really be Baker vs. The Grahams. Baker got himself into a war, not his usual massacre. More than a few wrestlers hoped it would be WWWF champion Superstar Graham (above) another Graham who Baker wants to eliminate. Mike Graham is in serious trouble (right) as Baker tortures him with a nervehold.

Baker's Waterloo. If Baker fell at Mike's hands, the cheers would be heard throughout the world.

After the match, there were no cheers. People had to be satisfied there were no tears. Mike survived without serious injury. Barely. That's about all one can expect from a match against Baker when the man goes berserk. It's a testament to Mike's courage he didn't run while the getting was good. Most people would have fled to safety at the first opportunity. Mike Graham hangs tough.

From the opening bell, Ox was a wildman. Though the referee warned him time and time again, Baker continued to violate any rule which fit his fancy. Graham managed to gain a short advantage at various times during the brawl, which is close to miraculous. Mike's maneuvers were perfect. They had to be.

As the match wore on, Baker grew more and more desperate to cripple his foe. A jungle animal wouldn't have dared Baker's moves. There was a horrible splendor in it all. The depths of human cruelty were being revealed, a distorted mirror image of what lurks hidden in all of us. It's Baker's ability to give humanity's hidden horror free reign that makes him so excitingly dangerous.

With an animal shriek, Baker leaped on Graham and began to choke him. Ox's powerful fingers crushed Mike's windpipe. The young Graham turned red, then white. His wracking gasps sent shivers up everyone's spine. The referee tried to pull Baker off. Baker wouldn't let go.

It was Mike who had to free himself. Grabbing the inside of Baker's wrists, he snapped them out. Ox let out a whelp of pain, fearing both wrists were broken. He ran back to the dressing room.

Baker's wrists had been sprained, not broken. One look in his eyes said the Grahams' struggle had just begun. □

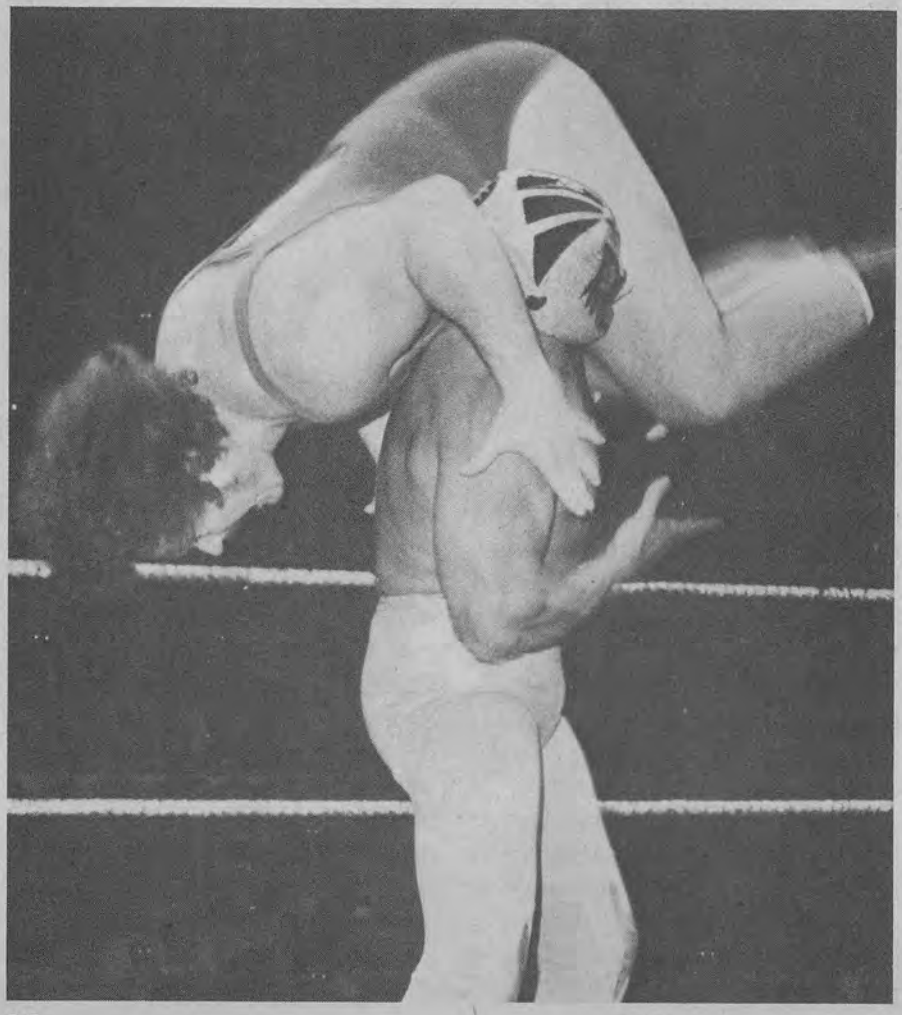
MIL MASCARAS IS COMING TO THE WWWF !

Mil Mascaras is victorious in his first Madison Square Garden match (right) and referee Dick Kroll makes it official. That was in 1972. Doug Gilbert falls to Mil in 1977 (below).

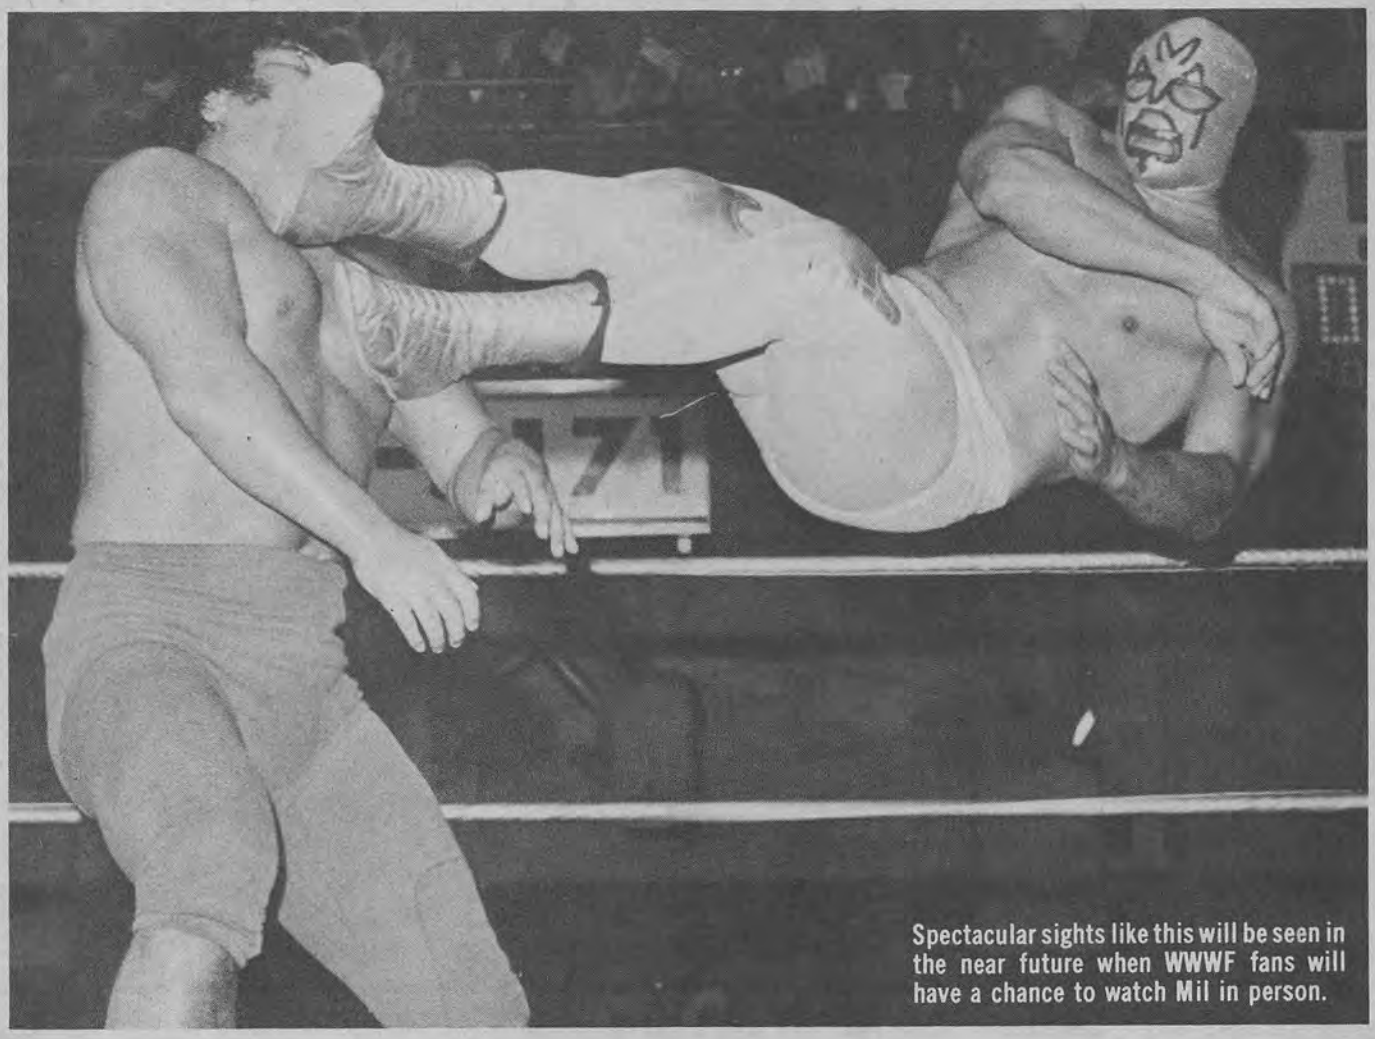


START SPREADING THE NEWS. There's a new face coming to the WWWF. He is destined to take the entire association by storm. He may even become champion in due time. It is entirely possible.

Of course, none of this has been officially announced yet. But that is only a matter of time. According to the most reliable sources, Mil Mascaras will soon be coming to the WWWF, at least for a little while. If things work out well for him, he may consent to stay on a more long-term basis. But for now, the masked star will be experimenting in the WWWF for just a short time.

This news could not have come at a more opportune time. Right now, the WWWF is in desperate need of someone of the highest calibre to try to defeat Superstar Billy Graham, the association's champion. If any man can do that, Mil

For WWWF fans, Mil Mascaras' appearances in their area are much too few and far between. It seems their prayers have been answered, however, because the most spectacular grappler of them all plans to take the WWWF by storm!



Spectacular sights like this will be seen in the near future when WWWF fans will have a chance to watch Mil in person.

Mascaras can. At one time, early in their career when they were both promising rookies, Mil Mascaras and Superstar Graham did battle. Many people have speculated on what would happen if the two wrestled now. That question may be answered. If Mil stays long enough in the WWWF, he may be given a chance to wrestle for the belt. And having Mil Mascaras as champion would return glory to the title which was lost when Graham took over the championship.

Bids from various WWWF promoters have been flooding into the association's headquarters, pleading to have Mascaras come to their arenas. And Mascaras hasn't even said for sure that he is coming to the area! He is definitely a wrestler in demand. Fans all over the association want to see him in action. Now they may be given their chance. They are anxious, and the promoters know it. They want Mascaras!

Kathy Garber, a leading WWWF promoter, is now on special assignment to conduct negotiations with Mascaras for the WWWF. So far, she has met with moderate success: "Mil is very interested in coming to the WWWF," she says, "though there have been a few stumbling blocks to total success. He still has several commitments in Texas and California to fulfill, and there is no way he can get out of those. He is also scheduled to make a movie soon. That means he will have to go to Mexico for a while.

"But he is still very interested in coming to the WWWF. He has been here before, but he only wrestled in New York, at Madison Square Garden. This time he would like to wrestle in other arenas throughout the association. As a promoter, I can truthfully say that this is the most welcome news of all. I think every promoter in the WWWF feels the same way I do.

BRUNO SAMMARTINO

THE SLAUGHTER MUST

NOW IS THE time for these two men to come to their senses. They must be stopped. They are already killing each other. Someone must put an end to the battles between Superstar Billy Graham and Bruno Sammartino.

Since the night he lost the championship, Bruno Sammartino has been trying to win back his belt. He has battled Graham on many occasions. But the result has always been the same: Superstar Graham is always the man who walks away with the belt. No matter how hard he tries, Sammartino cannot regain the championship. And he has tried very hard. That is the problem.

To see those two men after one of their battles is almost heartbreaking. Neither one of them can move very well. Usually, their entire being is covered with blood; some of it their own, some of it from the other man. Breathing is a heavy and labored process. That they are both still alive is somewhat of a shock.

A normal man would not be able to stand this kind of punishment even once. These two men have sustained it several times. And each time, it becomes worse. They are more and more brutal in their battles now. Sammartino has grown desperate in his quest for the title. Graham has become fanatical about keeping the championship. Both of them are blinded by ambition. And it is killing them.

In another, less civilized time, these two men would probably have dueled to the death. They certainly would not have allowed each other to live for long. But even in these modern times, Graham and Sammartino seem headed toward the same end. And even in a civilized world, they seem bent on destruction.

Why do these two men keep wrestling each other? Why are they allowed to keep this slaughter going, knowing that it may be killing them? Why has no one intervened to stop these brawls, or at least made them

There comes a time when money and glory must be secondary to mercy. Each match pitting Superstar Graham against Bruno Sammartino is a gory clash that could easily lead to tragedy. There is no way the promoters can let this situation continue!

conform to what wrestling should be? The answers to these questions are not simple. There is a complex network at work here. It has ensnarled almost everyone involved in the WWWF.

The most important factor to consider here is the fact that Bruno desperately wants to win his title back. He needs that belt, he maintains, because he is sickened by what Graham has done with it. Sammartino feels he is the man best qualified to hold the WWWF championship. He is determined to prove this to the rest of the world (though everyone already knows it). The truth is that he doesn't need this belt as much as he wants it. He enjoyed being champion. Being a contender is not the same. He will go to any lengths to win back the belt.

Superstar Billy Graham is a man possessed. He lives for the belt. His every waking minute is spent in some sort of service to the title. It may not necessarily be the kind of service that most honors the belt, but it is sincere. There is no happier titleholder in wrestling than Superstar Graham. He waited a long time to win the belt. There were many failed attempts. But now it is his, and he does not intend to let it slip through his fingers. He wants to be WWWF champion as long as he can. He guards his championship jealously. He does not look kindly on anyone who might wish to take it from him. The most likely person to do that is Bruno Sammartino, as the brawls between the two men have shown.

But these battles would not be allowed to continue if the fans did not want them to continue. The fans of Bruno Sammartino want to see him win back the belt. Superstar Graham's fans want to see him end the career of the greatest threat to his title. Neither group will be satisfied until these goals are accom-

You can tell George Steele isn't playing with a full deck (right). As a team, Steele and Stasiak can function quite well, as Peter Maivia finds out (above).

Stasiak WREST ODD COU

SOME MEN DREAM of going over Niagara Falls in a barrel. Others want to defy death by parachuting into a field of steel spikes. Stan Stasiak is the most reckless of all. He's the tag team partner of George "Animal" Steele.

"Sure I know he's crazy," Stasiak says, eyes gleaming, "that's what makes it interesting. This could be the biggest thing to ever hit wrestling. Something about him makes me think this tag team will rule the world. Or else we'll both die trying!" With that, Stasiak rocks with laughter.

As Stasiak would never admit, it has not been one big chuckle. Steele is recklessly dangerous, the last man on earth on whom one would choose to depend. There have been tag team bouts when Stasiak has stared at his partner like some creature from outer space. And he's earned the right to do that.

Stasiak refuses to talk to journalists about Steele's odder moments. However, it's not hard to hear his rich baritone through the dressing room door. After one match, when Steele found it more to his liking to break a foe's leg though it meant losing the match, Stasiak exploded. He could be heard throughout the state.

"Moron! Idiot! Wacko! Do you have any idea how much money you cost us? We were up for a title shot! We could've been WWWF champions! That's fat city, chump. Now we have to go through more contender matches. And it's all because you don't have a brain in your misshapen head!"

From inside the dressing room came animal whimpers, as if a dog was being whipped. A few minutes later, the door flew open and Stasiak stormed out of the room. Inside, Steele sat in a corner, a sadly petulant look on his face. He was sorry he did wrong.

This often happens to the strange combination. There are moments when they're savagely incredible, the most fearsome combination in wrestling. There are other times when confusion reigns supreme.

George Steele is not the most dependable tag team partner in the world. Some people march to a different drum; Steele trods to the beat of a Ringo Starr nightmare. When Stasiak is in trouble, when he manages to get close enough to Steele for a tag, it's not too much for him to expect to be tagged. Steele doesn't work that way. George only tags when he feels like it. This means Stasiak has to take more of a beating, trying to survive until George feels the time is right. This leads to a certain amount of tension.

Also, there is a personality conflict, although it's hard to see how any personality wouldn't conflict with Steele's. Stan Stasiak is a rough, no-nonsense guy who likes to brawl. He's there to get a job done, without caring how that's accomplished. A mean man, he does his job with merciless dispatch. An unpredictable grappler makes him nervous.

That's why people were stunned when Stasiak teamed with Steele. George is one of the most unpredictable men in the world. No one even begins to guess his next move. He seems the last person Stasiak would seek to be a partner. In fact, he's the last person most people would seek as a partner.

The referee orders Stasiak to stop hitting Maivia while Steele holds the Samoan still. They hope to win the WWWF tag team title.

But the cruelty Steele brings to a match outweighs all other considerations. Stasiak has dreams of this savage duo brawling its way to a tag team title.

"We can tear any two men apart," Stasiak states happily, "and some of them will never wrestle again. Together, we have more power than any tag team imaginable. You couldn't find two better grapplers. Sure, George is a bit odd, but that's only when you don't understand him. He's actually a great tag team partner.

"Have you seen us when we're right? Makes you scared, doesn't it? Don't blame you. It scares me sometimes. Absolutely incredible. George Steele, under the right circumstances, can do anything. It was just a matter of time before someone discovered how great the man is. I was lucky enough to be that man. Actually, luck had nothing to do with it. My genius was responsibe for seeing what no one else could understand."

Stasiak admits the first few matches were the hardest.

"When I first got in the ring with George," he recalls, "I wondered if maybe I was the one bonckers. What was I doing with this yo-yo? But time proved me right. It just took a little while before Steele got used to being a tag team partner. In fact, George has a little trouble yet doing the right thing. But sooner or later, we're going to iron out all the little difficulties and get the tag team titles. Guaranteed.

"And when we're champions, the WWWF will crawl. No other team will ever compare with us."

Right now, no other team compares with Stasiak and Steele. The question is whether or not anyone wants to compare with this strange duo. □

Probably no one is more surprised than Rick himself. "I figured I had two or three more years as a preliminary wrestler," Steamboat admits, "then I'd be ready for the big time. At first, I didn't even want to take that title

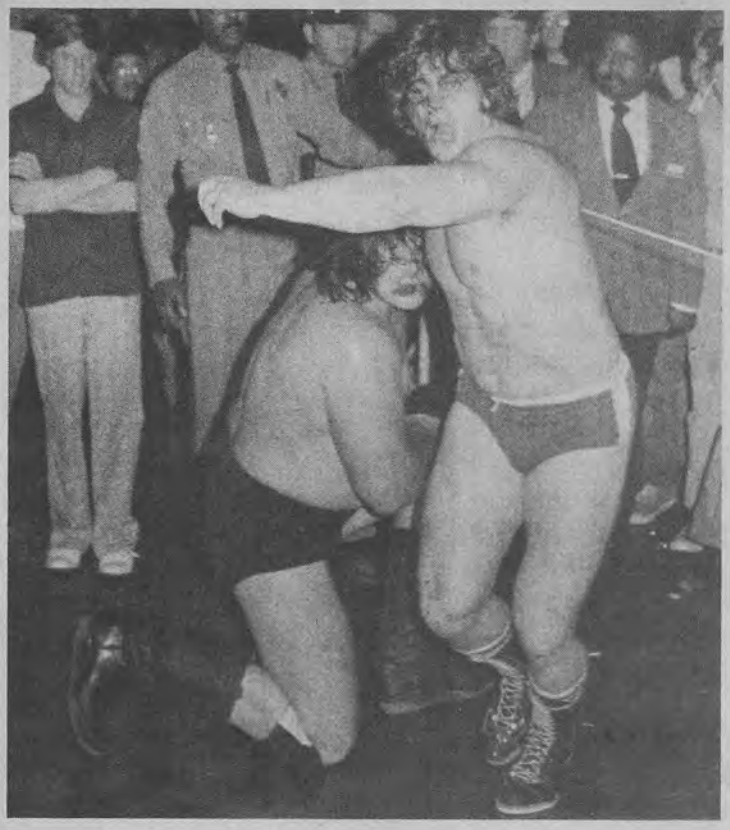
THE ARENA FELL into awed silence. In another age, it would be called a miracle and troubadours would recount the event throughout the land. Villagers would talk of him as if he were a legendary hero. Dreamers would leave their farms to be by his side.

In these time, heroes are honored by being dubbed superstars. The crowd's awe was eloquent proof that Dino Bravo deserved elevation to wrestling's highest ranks. He had risen from sure defeat to make victory his own. It was a superb exhibition of wrestling magnificence. More remarkable, his victory was over Blackjack Mulligan. Once Mulligan gains an advantage over an opponent, it usually means the man is finished. Yet,



Those who were there will never forget it. In one match, Dino Bravo went from a promising grappler to superstar. What's more incredible, his greatness was revealed against that most ruthless of competitors, Blackjack Mulligan!

Outside the ring, Bravo continues his war against Mulligan. Both men are bloody from the heated battle.

on this extraordinary evening, nothing was as it should be.

It started out as if the match would be a stalemate. Two evenly matched athletes battled furiously. Then, with the cunning for which he's feared throughout the world, Mulligan went through a series of maneuvers which left Bravo almost helpless. It will come as a surprise to no one that many of the moves were illegal. But Mulligan's demented genius is such that no referee can possibly observe him breaking the rules. Bravo appeared doomed.

Yet, the force which separates the great athletes from everyone else erupted in Bravo. As if Mulligan's treachery had just been kidding around, he countered with a remarkable offense of his own. Mulligan looked as if he'd been run over from behind like a Mack truck. He knew he was finished but didn't know why.

The end was inevitable. Dino Bravo conquered Blackjack Mulligan. When the crowd finally realized what had happened, once their awe had passed, they cheered wildly. The standing ovation was eloquent evidence of Bravo's superstar status.

Back in the dressing room, Bravo was too happy to even think straight. A goofy grin spread across his face. He had done the impossible brilliantly. His world championship hopes had gone from dreams to probability. After this match, there would be nothing he couldn't do. (Continued)

Dino flips his huge opponent to the canvas as he comes back from a beating to overpower the huge cowboy from Texas.

"It never occured to me I wouldn't win tonight," Dino declared, "even when Mulligan was all over me. I knew the match was mine. It was just a matter of time. When the end is in sight, the pain doesn't hurt that much. All the time, something inside me said victory was mine.

"Isn't it a great world?"

The next day, Dino sat down for a real interview. The news of his victory had already spread like wildfire throughout the wrestling community. All morning, promoters had been offering him small fortunes to wrestle in their arenas.

The feared clawhold of Mulligan looks like it is about to finish the match in Blackjack's favor. But Dino was able to break free.

Commissioners from the NWA, AWA, and WWWF asked him to prepare for title matches against the champions. This is how a superstar is treated.

"For the first time in my life," Dino stated, "I was what I should have been all along. Last night was what I've been aiming for all my life. Anyone can win when he's doing well from the beginning. But to come back when it's hopeless, to work your way out of a tough situation, that's what makes for greatness. And last night, all modesty aside, I felt great. I felt unbeatable.

"What's more, brains won the match for me as much as brawn. I never panicked, never lost my poise. All the time, despite the pain, I was thinking my way out of trouble. Using my head at all times, trying to find the chink in his armor. Well, I found it and made the right decisions to escape. And then I made the right decisions to win. This was the match in which I found myself."

Bravo has reason to be delighted. His time has come. When future champions are being discussed, his name is now always mentioned. Promoters are beginning to figure him for one of the sport's main attractions. All on the basis of one superb match. No one can deny Bravo has earned this attention.

Except for Blackjack Mulligan. The man is outraged Bravo has made his mark against him. He has been vowing the most crippling kinds of revenge, swearing to make sure Bravo never wrestles again. When Mulligan threatens, intelligent people get scared.

"He was lucky once," Blackjack says in cold whisper, "but he won't be lucky again. All those plans for the new superstar will be thrown out the window when I get through with Bravo. He'll never wrestle again. To see him, fans will have to get a visitors passes at the hospital.

"I've been studying films of the match, and I saw where I went wrong. It won't happen again. This time, I'll finish him off for good. You have my word on it. And when Blackjack Mulligan promises something, you can count on it becoming a reality."

The match is now all Dino's (above and below) as he teaches Mulligan a lesson he had been waiting to give him.

No one doubts Mulligan will try to destroy Dino Bravo. But the ruthless grappler tried once before, and in that confrontation Bravo became a superstar. What will happen in the next match is anybody's guess. However, every expert is confident about Dino Bravo, supestar. □

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Each day, out of the thousands of letters we receive, hundreds of them are from fans asking the whereabouts of their favorite wrestler. In this special column, we will try to answer the questions you ask the most!

STAN HANSEN

Stan Hansen, the man who tore up all competition in the WWWF about a year ago, is currently doing the same to all opposition in Oklahoma. Hansen's fearful "Lariat," the maneuver which broke Bruno Sammartino's neck, has ended at least five wrestlers' careers in Oklahoma alone. □

JOE LeDUC

Joe, who was one of the most popular grapplers to ever appear in Florida, still returns to the "Sunshine State" on a semi-regular basis. When not wrestling in Florida, Joe gives in to wanderlust and engages in battles in his native Canada. Recently, a tour of Australia was an unqualified success for the huge Canadian lumberjack. □

BUTCHER VACHON

The big (6-3, 363 pounds) Vachon has returned to the mat wars of the WWWF. Butcher, after a successful stint in Los Angeles, decided to come back east because, as he brags, "I needed some easy victories. I'll beat Putski, Backlund, Strongbow, Maivia, and Sammartino, and then I'll leave. It should take me three, maybe four days at most!" □

THE EXECUTIONERS

This tag team, which mysteriously appeared, seemingly overnight, in WWWF arenas, has just as suddenly disappeared. No one seems to know just where the masked duo is. According to a hot rumor, Sir Oliver Humperdink has purchased The Executioners' contract from Lou Albano for a record one million dollars (plus a tag team to be named later), but at press time this report could not be verified. □

MINNESOTA GRAPPLING
By Aaron Goff

The Minneapolis Auditorium was the site for a wild six-man tag team match pitting Greg Gagne, Jim Brunzell, and Billy Robinson against Nick Bockwinkle, Bobby Heenan, and Blackjack Lanza.

Gagne, remembering how Heenan gave him a concussion a few weeks back, chased Bobby with a chair. When the match began officially, Heenan refused to come into the ring. The other five wrestlers waged a furious battle until it became a free-for-all. Heenan couldn't escape being drawn into this whirlwind of action. Once Greg got his hands on Bobby, Heenan wished he'd never come! The man absorbed a savage beating at Gagne's hands. Bockwinkle and Lanza tried to save Heenan, but left themselves open to attacks by Brunzell and Robinson. This allowed Robinson to capture Bockwinkle and end the match.

NEW JERSEY ACTION
By Ed Stoerger

Fans packed the South Plainfield High School gymnasium to see Ivan Putski wrestle George "Animal" Steele.

Ivan quickly took control of the match by devastating Steele with a "Polish hammer." But George responded by rubbing Putski's eyes across the turnbuckle, momentarily blinding Ivan. As Putski stumbled around, Steele prematurely raised his arm in victory. But Ivan rallied and attacked. With a series of great maneuvers, Ivan battered Steele around the ring. George realized he was doomed and fled to the dressing room.

In other action, Mr. Fuji and Professor Toru Tanaka overcame the challenge of Jose Gonzalez and Haystacks Calhoun.

ILLINOIS MAYHEM
By Brian Baresch

One of the greatest tag team battles that ever graced the Chicago International Amphitheatre when Pedro Morales and Bruiser clashed against Angelo Mosca and Super Destroyer.

It was a superb exhibition of wrestling virtuosity with no team managing to gain advantage until late in the battle. The match became a free-for-all with all four men in the ring. Then the manager for Mosca and Super Destroyer. Lord Al Hays, handed a foreign object to Super Destroyer. The grappler knew what to do with it. Seconds later, Bruiser lay unconscious. Super Destroyer and Angelo Mosca were declared the winners, the referee not having seen the foreign object.

In other action, Wilbur Snyder and Ivan Koloff were counted out as they warred outside the ring . . . The time limit ran out on Roger Kirby and Jose Martinez.

ATLANTA BATTLING
By Russell Shattles

The challenge was laid down. Rock Hunter dared Tony Atlas to military press 300 pounds. Tony took the challenge with Hunter looking on. Atlas was lifting 260 pounds when Pak Song ran into the ring and judo chopped Tony in the ribs. The weights crashed down on Tony's neck and chest. The man was in danger of being crushed. Fortunately, Burrhead Jones and Randy Als rushed into the ring and removed the weights crushing Tony's body.

Tony was taken to the hospital where he must stay for a short time. Hunter will have to pay all medical expenses. □

Q: Does Bobby Heenan think he was responsible for the split-up of Nick Bockwinkle and Ray Stevens?—Fred Leaman, Minneapolis, Minnesota

A: "No way in hell!" exclaims Heenan. "Ray Stevens plotted against Nick and me. He was planning to do it for months. I had nothing to do with the break-up. Furthermore, Nick and I do not regret any of the beatings we have handed Stevens since the split. He deserved every one of them—and there will be more coming!"

Q: Does Dino Bravo read the fan mail he receives?—Rebecca Ann Davison, Rileyville, Virginia

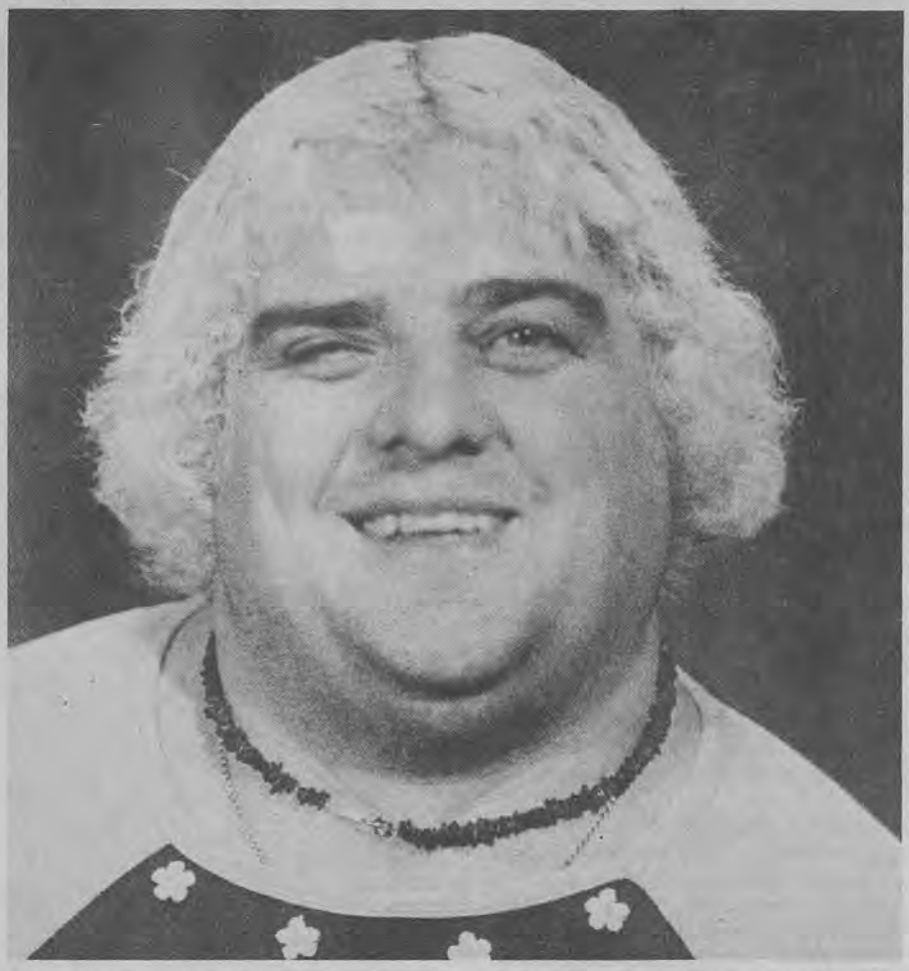
A: Dino says, "I try to read every letter I get. Unfortunately, I rarely if ever have any time to answer the wonderful people who write to me."

Q: Will Bobo Brazil try to win the U.S. title back from Ric Flair?—Paul Laumer, Richmond, Virginia

A: "That belt is what keeps me going in this sport," said Bobo. "I cannot function properly without it. I must get it back from Flair. I won't rest until I am wearing that belt again."

Q: Will Tony Garea and Dean Ho ever team up again?—Ralph Pepino, Runnemede, New Jersey

A: At the present time, Dean Ho has a long term contract with California promoters. Garea has a similar contract with east coast promoters. It is not likely they will team again in the near future. "If there is any way we can get back together as a team, we will," assures Garea.



One of Dusty Rhodes' favorite pastimes is cooking. Dusty likes to experiment and create new dishes.

Q: What ever became of Gorgeous George Jr.?—John Bodenhausen, APO New York

A: The "Gorgeous One" is wrestling regularly in Tennessee.

TANAKA WHO? FUJI WHAT?

What a sad day it is for the entire wrestling community. "Tanaka and Fuji: The Torture Experts Return" (September 1977) tells a story no one wanted to hear. No one wanted Mr. Fuji and Professor Tanaka to team up. They are too dangerous together. They are proving that now.

GOOD TASTE

To your question, "Have the Valiants Been Blacklisted?" (September 1977), the answer is absolutely not. The nation's promoters have just been exhibiting good taste in not wanting the Valiants to wrestle in their arenas.

Who needs to see men whose main pleasure in life is injuring other wrestlers? The Valiants like to brawl. That's it. Who needs to see that?

THE BATTLE FOR THE NWA TITLE

than just scientific moves. He made his feelings known. He continually shouted instructions to Studd from outside the ring. John followed some of the advice, and ignored the rest. This particularly annoyed Hart. He expects the men he manages to listen to everything he says. Studd's attitude was not to his liking. Nor was the match. He decided to do something about it.

When the referee was looking elsewhere, Gary Hart climbed into the ring. When he tried to attack Snuka, another figure appeared on the scene—Jose Lothario, who had been watching the entire match from the back of the arena. He jumped into the fray to prevent Hart from interfering with the action. Unfortunately, he didn't arrive in time. Gary successfully smashed Jimmy, knocking him to the canvas. Then all hell broke loose.

The referee tried to stop the chaos but to no avail. Snuka and Studd continued wrestling. Jose Lothario went after Gary Hart. It took several minutes before calm was restored. The match was over, the referee having disqualified Studd for the outside interference from his manager.

But worse than all that, no one had the chance to see the outcome of the NWA championship match five years from now. Would the winner have been Snuka? Would it have been Studd? Thanks to Gary Hart, everyone will have to wait until the day that match really happens to determine the victor.

In many ways, however, the wait will be worth it. We shall all have the opportunity to see these two wrestlers develop. Will Studd continue on his rulebreaking ways, or will he start wrestling scientifically? Will Jimmy Snuka live up to his potential? Check back in five years to find out the answers to these questions. □

Learn piano, guitar, etc. at home in spare time.

It may seem odd at first—the idea of teaching yourself music. You might think you need an expensive private teacher to instruct you—and to tell you when you make a mistake.

But, the fact is, you don't. Thousands have taught themselves to play with the U.S. School of Music courses. By mail. So can you.

The secret lies in the step-by-step way our lessons teach you. You learn to play the right way—by note, from sheet music. Without gimmicks. Before long you'll be playing many kinds of music: ballads, old favorites, show tunes, or hymns.

For more information about this convenient, economical way to learn music, mail the coupon. We'll send you our free booklet and "Note-Finder." No obligation.

We want Mascaras to wrestle in our arenas. We want the fans in our areas to see Mil in person.

WWWF. He liked his few previous forays into the territory, even though they were limited to New York. He wants to go back, this time expanding his horizons. But he is not sure if he will be able to go soon.

"I have many things left to do," says Mil. "I want to go to the WWWF, but I have obligations for matches I must fulfill. I have a movie to do. I can't just abandon these commitments. The negotiations with the WWWF have been going slowly. There are some minor points we still have yet to work out. But I'm confident we will be able to complete this process in due time.

"I look forward to wrestling in the WWWF, and I also hope to get a title shot against Billy Graham. I think I can still defeat him. I would most certainly like to have the chance to try. Winning the belt in the bargain would not be objectionable either. But for now, I am more interested in seeing if I can still be victorious over him. I don't think he has improved very much since the first time we wrestled, back in 1970."

Many people want Mascaras to come to the WWWF and stay there. But these initial negotiations have been concerned with only a short stay. It is hoped Mil will come to the association, be given a warm reception by the fans, and want to stay. However, this possibility has not been discussed much in the contract talks. Right now, it is just a matter of getting Mil into the WWWF. The length of his stay is a topic which will be discussed at a later time for a different contract.

The only problem with this, however, is that without a certain number of matches, it will be difficult for Mascaras to rightly qualify for a title shot against Superstar Graham. That is one of the main reasons Mascaras has to stay longer.

Until such time as the negotiations are finalized and the contracts are signed, there will be no official announcement. But Mil Mascaras is coming to the WWWF. And when he arrives, it will be a happy day for the association□

BRUNO SAMMARTINO--SUPERSTAR GRAHAM

A rope, brought into the ring by Graham, is used against him (above). Early in the fray, Bruno tries to end it all with a Boston Crab (below).

plished. And it could cost someone his life!

This is absolutely crazy. There is no reason for this slaughter to continue like this. Someone has to stop it. There has been one notable attempt. In one recent match, the referee was Gorilla Monsoon. Everyone assumed that Bruno and Billy would not want to tangle with him. But that was a bad assumption to make. Though he tried very hard, Monsoon could not prevent the match from becoming a brawl. He had to disqualify both wrestlers, though that did not make much difference. By that point, both men were bloody messes. Both men were obviously hurting. Monsoon had tried to maintain order. Graham and Sammartino had just ignored him. They certainly did not care about rules. They were intent on destroying each other.

Is this what should be happening? Bruno Sammartino was always an honorable man who could be proud of what he did. Yet, there is nothing of which he can be proud in his confrontations with Graham. He has sunk to the same level as the worst rulebreaker, going straight for the victory without regard as to what is legal or illegal. Of course, Superstar Graham has been no saint either. Where once he was vicious, now he is deadly. There seems to be more determination and dedication in his illegal maneuvers. He is at his most brutal when he wrestles Sammartino. He knows he has the most to lose in these confrontations. He is in constant fear for his title.

It is sad that the WWWF championship has come to this state. There should be honor and prestige in title matches. They should not be the possible end of a man's life. These two men are trying to kill each other! And what will they have proven if by accident one of them should succeed? Nothing!

The slaughter must be stopped now. Bruno Sammartino and Superstar Billy Graham should not be allowed to wrestle each other for a while. Give them time to cool down. Let saner heads prevail. Mistakes made hastily now could take years to correct. And one serious mistake could be impossible to undo. After all, how do you undo someone's death?

Will no one call a halt to this madness? Will there never come a time when someone says, "Enough!"? Must we all live in this perpetual anticipation, knowing something is going to happen and being in dread of it, yet powerless to prevent it?

This slaughter must be stopped, now! □

Study at Home, No Classrooms, Set Your Own Pace, Wide Choice of Subjects to Fit your Interests, Credit for Subjects Finished Earlier

by Dr. E. C. Estabrooke
Educational Director
The American School
Founded 1897

Way back in 1897, our school was founded to help men and women finish high school as they worked or raised families. Since then, more than 2,000,000 men and women have enrolled in our school, We are probably the world's largest high school—and without a single classroom.

In a recent survey, 70% of our graduates told us that they chose American School because their responsibilities prevented them from attending resident school; 45% because they could learn at their own pace, and 20% did not want to return to a resident school because of their age.

Whatever your reason, and even if you had trouble with regular high school, I am sure American School can help you to succeed, at home, at your own pace.

American School is different. There are no classroom pressures. You work at your own pace as a "class of one"—and our instructors really do care about you. You'll get personal notes on your papers, not computer print-outs.

We offer over 100 subjects. Whether you are interested in oceanography, history, art, typing, home decoration or auto, you can tailor your program to your interests. Of course, we give credit for work you completed earlier.

Do mail the coupon today and let us tell you of our Accreditation, Diploma and special home study method. No obligation.

The promoters of the World Wide Wrestling Federation are trying to sign Bob Backlund (above, wrestling Terry Funk) to a contract to wrestle exclusively in their area. Bob will do so only if he gets matches against the top competitors in the area.

Rufus R. Jones became the first man to break Bob Slaughter's "Cobra Clutch." . . . Lord Al Hays is becoming a full-time manager for several AWA grapplers . . . WWWF promoters hint that Bob Backlund may begin wrestling in their areas on a more steady basis in the near future . . . Mighty Igor's battles with the Masked Superstar are becoming some of the bloodiest encounters Virginia fans have ever witnessed . . . A new sensational tag team has been formed! The partners are Gino Hernandez and Jimmy Snuka—and they have already won the Texas tag team belts!

After several rematches, Blackjack Lanza and Bobby Duncum have failed to regain the AWA tag team belts they lost to Greg Gagne and Jim Brunzell. The suspension of Duncum and Lanza's manager, Bobby Heenan, is reportedly lifted and now the rulebreaking duo feel more confident that they can get the belts back (since Heenan will be in their corner lending a helping hand if necessary).

Australian fans were disappointed when fellow countryman Ron Miller failed to take the NWA title from Harley Race. "Make no mistake about it. Miller is one of the best contenders I have ever faced," says Race . . . Japan is buzzing with excitement over Antonio Inoki's announcement that he may once again face Muhammad Ali in a boxer vs. wrestler confrontation . . . Relaxed from his most recent vacation trip to England, Billy Robinson has been promised a match against Nick Bockwinkle by the AWA board of directors.

Dick Slater is upset that rookie Tony Atlas now has three fan clubs in his honor and Dick has yet to have one!

"The fans are supporting a total loser!" exclaims Slater. "I didn't realize they were so stupid. Get smart, wrestling fans! Get behind your king—Dick Slater!"

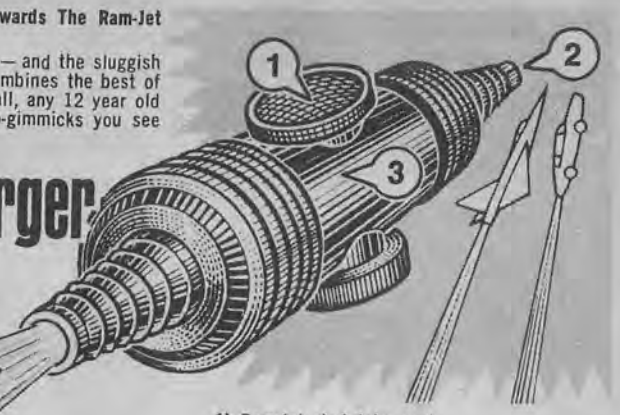
And that's what's happening!☐

. . the U.S. Government Awards The Ram-Jet Supercharger Patent No. 3118435. And other patents pending.

The Ram-Jet Supercharger is a great new weapon in America's war on high fuel costs — and the sluggish performance you get because of government mandated pollution control devices. It combines the best of automotive and aviation air induction principles. (Yet it's so brilliantly simple to install, any 12 year old can do it in 3 minutes) . . . So do not confuse the RAM-JET with all the many auto-gimmicks you see advertised that have no patent and serve no real purpose.

NOW! New Ram-Jet Supercharger TURNS POLLUTION INTO FREE POWER FOR YOUR CAR.

(Gives you up to 50 extra miles for every tankfull)!



Easy instructions show you how to install in just 3 minutes or less. No tools. No training needed. It's about as easy as screwing in a light bulb. (And ladies, you can do it without even getting your hands greasy).

1) Ram-Jet air intake vent.

2) Waste gas from pollution control line enters here.

3) "Mini Computer" valve inside regulates perfect gas/air mixture for every driving situation.

4) "Jet Stream" of super vaporized mix improves carburetion — actually results in FREE power!! Adds as much as 15 more usable horsepower (And it does so with absolute 100% safety).

The Ram-Jet is virtually indestructible — made of a fanstastic DuPont space-age material. It never needs replacing or servicing of any kind. And is guaranteed for at least 100,000 miles.

New Ram-Jet Actually "Jet Assists" Your Car Engine . . . Makes It Burn Up To 15 Gallons Of Air For Every Gallon Of Gas . . . And Gives You As Much As 15 More Usable Horsepower! Free!

We believe Ram-Jet is the most exciting piece of high-performance automotive equipment since the V-8. Yet it weighs only a few ounces. Installs in a couple of minutes (No tools or training needed. You won't even get your hands greasy). Costs less than a tankful of gas. And saves you so much gas, it's like getting every tenth gallon FREE!

The brainchild of Ed Almquist, internationally famous automotive engineer and the "Thomas Edison of high-performance accessories". . . The Ram-Jet took over 20 years to develop and perfect. And now — only after proving itself beyond a shadow of a doubt — at Pocono and other stock car races, as well as in a national test of thousands of ordinary cars in normal driving situations . . . NOW, AT LAST, THE RAM-JET IS READY FOR YOU! READY TO TURN POLLUTION INTO FREE POWER!

How does it work?

Just as a jet engine requires a certain supply of air to operate . . . so does the gasoline combustion engine in your car. And it's the carburetor that mixes this air with fuel to fire the cylinders and make your car go. The problem is that carburetors were invented over 50 years ago when gas was plentiful and cheap and air pollution wasn't even talked about. The carburetor hasn't changed much since then: It's still a big compromise! It only works perfectly on those rare occasions when all driving conditions are perfect. (Which averages only a couple of minutes at the most out every driving hour). Your carburetor just can not efficiently adjust itself to your stop-and-go driving, sudden bursts of speed; or to put it in technical terms . . . those many occasions when your engine is operating under 0-10" high-load conditions. When this crucial mixture of air and gas is not right on the money, the result is a loss of power with a lot more gas being burned than is really necessary!

NOW WITH GOVERNMENT INSISTENCE ON POLLUTION CONTROL DEVICES, THE WASTE IN POWER AND GASOLINE IS EVEN GREATER THAN EVER. BECAUSE THE POLLUTION THAT USED TO BE RELEASED INTO THE AIR IS NOW FED BACK INTO YOUR ENGINE.

If you've ever wondered why the newer cars seem to have even less power than the older ones, well now you know. Today, you can pay as much as $10,000 or $20,000 (or even more) for a new car and still find it lacks real oomph when you need it, hesitating and even stalling out on you frequently.

Now, at last, the Ram-Jet to the rescue! It solves both problems at once.

It brings your 50-year-old-carburetor design into the Jet Age.

1) It works like a mini-computer to automatically adjust the air/gas mixture to your every driving need. It thus steps up gas molecularization . . . reducing gas flow before it becomes wasteful. Just as a jet engine sucks air into it . . . the Ram-Jet automatically and safely jets air into the gas mixture the very split second your driving conditions require it.

2) It captures the polluted air that would ordinarily be fed back into your engine . . . and re-energizes it into a "Jet Stream" that is once again ignited into useful clean power instead of clogging up your engine and making it hesitate and stall and waste gasoline and power.

GREATEST GUARANTEE IN AUTOMOTIVE HISTORY: THE 100,000 MILE 100% MONEY BACK GUARANTEE. Anytime within the next 100,000 miles you put on your car, if you don't think the Ram-Jet Supercharger is the best automotive investment you've ever made, simply return it to us for a full money back refund. No questions asked. (And don't forget — with the Ram-Jet turning pollution into free power instead of turning it back into your engine, it's no telling how many extra power-packed miles you'll be able to log on your engine before its ready for the junk heap).

THOUSANDS OF SIMILAR DEVICES SOLD IN EUROPE FOR MORE THAN $20 A PIECE. THE RAM-JET SUPERCHARGER IS NOW AVAILABLE TO YOU FOR JUST $12.95. BECAUSE OF A SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT, IT COMES TO YOU DIRECT (NO MIDDLEMEN) FROM THE INVENTOR / MANUFACTURER HIMSELF, MR. ED ALMQUIST.

WHAT DO PEOPLE SAY ABOUT THE RAM-JET SUPERCHARGER? WE GET LOADS OF LETTERS LIKE THESE EVERY DAY.

An airline pilot writes: "Suddenly my little six cylinder engine seems to have the power of an eight. Yet it saves gas like it was a four. That little Ram-Jet is amazing!" — Phillip Shade, Plymouth, Connecticut

"I used to get around 21 mpg. in city driving, and around 26 mpg. cross country. Now I get around 39 mpg. city driving and around 41 mpg. cross country. And the pickup is fantastic! That Supercharger you sent me is Marvelous." — J.P.D., Quebec, Canada

"I have a Ram-Jet. And so do many of my parishioners. We found out that we average from 2 to 6 more miles per gallon with much more engine pep and acceleration."— The Rev. P. Mick Harvey, Illinois match. I wasn't ready. Flair is more dangerous than anyone I'd ever faced before. My friends had to convince me to take the risk.

RICK STEAMBOAT

A pressure point becomes a perfect spot for Steamboat to apply a nervehold (above) on Randy Alls. In a test of power, Rick is about to bring Alls to the mat (below). Rick's greatest moment came when he upset Ric Flair to win the Mid-Atlantic television title.

"I never trained harder for a match in my entire life. I know things about Flair that even he doesn't suspect. I studied films, reports, watched him wrestle two or three times, even had nightmares about him. When I finally faced him in the ring, it was as if we'd wrestled 100 times before.

"I didn't expect to win. I just hoped to do well enough so promoters would see me. All I wanted out of the match were a couple of good bookings. What I got was a championship. It's a great world."

What is it like to go from relative obscurity to the spotlight? According to Rick, it's the greatest feeling in the world.

"Total strangers come up to me on the streets and wish me luck. I get preferential treatment wherever I go, which may not be fair but it sure is fun. And I feel good about myself. I'm Rick Steamboat, wrestling champion. It's proof I've got what it takes to succeed in this business.

"It's hard to be a preliminary wrestler. There's little glory, lots of hard work, and a grueling schedule. The money isn't worth the aggravation. A lot of guys with real ability give it up after a few months. They can't take the life. There were a few times when another profession seemed to be a good idea. But now, the sacrifices are worth it. The rewards are tremendous. I'd like to take this opportunity to tell every struggling young grappler to stick with it. It's rough but worth the wait.

"Defeating Flair was the biggest thrill of my life. I don't want to sound square, but I really believe people need to see scientific wrestlers succeeding. That was the real kick for me, defeating a notorious rule-breaker for the title. These days especially, it's important for people to see someone succeed by sticking to the rules. I'm glad to be someone who proves right can triumph sometimes.

"I feel a real responsibility to the fans. Most of the time, they know what's best for the sport. As I see it, they're the ones who make it possible for me to earn a living. That gives them the final word."

The words fans use to describe Rick Steamboat are always complimentary. They're as happy about his new success as is the young man himself. It seems like it will be a happy title reign for everyone—except rulebreakers! □

A million jobs have disappeared since 1960

Will Your Job be Next to Go?

Shouldn't you start your own business NOW ...while still employed?

Before more jobs disappear through mergers, automation, and mechanization, shouldn't you at least investigate the way so many men have become owners of profitable businesses —starting spare time and now are independent of bosses, strikes, layoffs and automation? All that's needed is your name on the coupon. Facts mailed free. No salesman will call.

Here are facts: With some ambition and less than fifteen hundred dollars, you start your own Duraclean business, spare time, without risking your job or paycheck!

It's a nationally advertised, worldwide business. It does not require skill, more than an average education, or traits except the willingness to work to start grossing $12, $19, or $26 profit per hour. By return mail, we will explain how.

You build by adding servicemen and/or servicewomen . . . and we pay for their equipment so you can expand rapidly.

This is a service to homeowners as well as offices and stores and institutions—a sensationally improved method of cleaning carpets and upholstered furniture right on the customer's premises—the EXCLUSIVE DURACLEAN SYSTEM!

When you have had your own carpet and furniture cleaned, you know that ordinary methods grind fibers with harsh scrubbing, leaving carpet soggy for days.

This exclusive ABSORPTION METHOD lifts out dirt and greasy soil with a gentle, almost dry foam. Do-it-yourself "so-called" cleaning methods and scrubbing drive soil deeper. You TAKE IT OUT. Carpets and furniture can be used again in a few hours! This is vital to stores, offices, motels.

You operate under a nationally known name—use an exclusive process recommended by the nation's leading carpet mills and in the editorial pages by House & Garden, McCalls, Parents, and House Beautiful. You receive our step by step guidance and help.

Your training shows you how to perform your 7 superior "on location" services . . . how to get customers, how to control your expenses, how to make the maximum profit. You become an expert in the care of furnishings. It is an interesting, exciting career.

Although in time you will wish to buy one or more trucks from your profits, no truck or office is needed to start. You can carry all equipment in your car trunk. Your phone calls can be received at home.

As a Duraclean Dealer you are the sole owner of an independent business and are your own boss. You keep all the net profits.

This business can pay you far more than most men earn—with only the talent and ambition you now possess, and you can operate in any one of three ways.

Many let servicemen do the work while they make a substantial profit on each.

Some men operate permanently in spare time for the extra money they need. Some start in spare time and quit their jobs only after they see they can make a lot more money as a full time Duraclean Specialist.

Even small one-man businesses with one or two helpers can and do bring in $30,000 and more annually. A very high percent is clear profit to you.

The Duraclean Business can be as small as you want or it can be expanded to the level your ambition dictates. There is no limit on income for an ambitious man.

We are about to appoint a limited number of men who are truly ambitious, and anxious to do something about their futures. We want men who will follow our proven plans for success and who want—with our help—their own successful businesses.

If this opportunity interests you, please send your name, on the coupon at the right, for a FREE 24-page booklet which gives complete details on the Duraclean Business. No salesman will call on you. After you've read the facts, decide in the privacy of your home if you wish to take the next step toward starting a business.

WE SWITCHED!

"For the first time in 20 years I've got security —without fear of losing my factory job." H. E., Ohio

"I took in $2880 in April. I worked from my home. My wife handles all telephone calls. We both enjoy our new-found independence and the compliments we get from satisfied customers." J.F.A., Texas

"When I was 40 I decided to retire before I was 50 years old. With Duraclean I gained financial security in only 8 years—then sold my business at a big profit." J.H., Ill.

"Duraclean brought security and an education for my daughters. We've done as much as $3000 on a single job." Mrs. B.B., Mass.

"Life is happier and more prosperous for my family and me. Without Duraclean I'd still be going from layoff to layoff. Now moving to new 5-bedroom home." R.J.B., Mich.

THESE ARE JUST A FEW OF THE LETTERS IN OUR FILES FROM MEN AND WOMEN WHO HAVE FOUND SUCCESS AS DURACLEAN DEALERS. (IN ANOTHER YEAR YOUR STATEMENT COULD BE HERE, TOO.)

Duraclean® International

Take a good honest look at yourself! Are you proud of your body – or are you satisfied to go through life being just "half the man" you could be? No matter how ashamed you are of your present physical condition – or how old or young you are – the "sleeping" muscles already present in your body can turn you into a REAL man! Believe me, I know – because I was once a skinny, scrawny 97-pound half-alive weakling! People used to laugh at my build and make fun of me. I was ashamed to strip for sports or the beach . . . shy of girls . . . afraid of healthy competition.

HOW I CHANGED FROM A 97 LB. WEAKLING TO A REAL MAN.

One day, I discovered a secret that changed me from a timid, frightened scarecrow into "The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man" – a "magic formula" that can help turn you, too, into a marvellous physical specimen . . . a REAL man from head to toe . . . a man who STANDS OUT in any crowd! What's my secret? "DYNAMIC-TENSION" – the natural method! No theory. No gadgets or contraptions. You just do as I did. Simply take the "sleeping" muscles already present inside your own body – build them up – use them every day in walking, bending over, reaching, even sitting! Almost before you know it, you're covered with a brand-new suit of beautiful, rock-hard SOLID MUSCLE!
